

Interjections

An interjection is a word or phrase used to express a feeling. Interjections are set off from the rest of the sentence with punctuation. Use a comma to set off interjections that express mild feelings. Use an exclamation mark to set off interjections that express very strong feelings. For example:

Um, will you please stop playing that bugle?

Wow! You are a great bugle player!

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite each sentence, adding punctuation.

1. Oh we're having meatloaf again

2. Yikes a mouse

3. Gosh my shoelaces won't stay tied

4. Woohoo we won the game

5. Ahem may I ask you a question

6. Blech how can you eat that
