

Name _____ Predicate Adjective

Predicate Adjective

A predicate adjective is an adjective that follows a linking verb and describes the subject of a sentence.

DIRECTIONS: Underline the predicate adjective in each sentence.

1. June is hungry.
2. Those people were nice.
3. I was late.
4. These cookies are delicious.
5. The change in her has been profound.
6. The children are content.
7. That recipe looks complicated.
8. The work we do is important.
9. That movie was long.
10. Jonah is temperamental.