

Name _____ To, Too, Two

To, Too, Two

The words to, too, and two are homophones: words that sound the same, but which have different meanings.

To is a preposition that expresses movement or direction:

We drove to the mall. I will add my name to the list.

Too means also, or to a greater degree:

I want to go too. It is too small.

Two is a number: I have two dogs.

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with to, too or two.

1. My brother got a new bike, and I want one _____.
2. I love dogs. I have _____ of them.
3. We go _____ the movies every Saturday night.
4. Tomorrow I will not go _____ school, as I am sick.
5. I walk _____ miles in the park every day.
6. When she saw me get out of the car, she ran _____ me.
7. I thought that book was _____ long and slow-paced.
8. If you're having coffee, I will have some _____.
9. The boys went _____ the mall after school.