

Claim vs. Evidence

TRUE OR FALSE

1. A claim is a statement that describes your position or point of view on a topic or issue. _____
2. A claim is not debatable. _____
3. Evidence is any combination of facts, data, or examples, or quotations that support your claim. _____
4. Evidence is not debatable. _____
5. You use evidence to prove that a claim is true. _____
6. All claims are equally true. _____
7. Evidence can include your opinion. _____
8. Claim is another word for fact. _____
9. Without evidence to support it, a claim is nothing more than an opinion. _____
10. Evidence should justify why a claim is valid. _____
11. If a position cannot be debated, it is not a claim. _____
