

ANSWERS

Black History Month is celebrated in February.

February was chosen because it is the birthday month of both
Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass

During Black History Month, we recognize and celebrate the achievements and contributions of black people.