

Read the poem.

Little Brother

I have a little brother
He's such a sight to see
He eats out of a bottle
And fills diapers with pee.

Sometimes, though, he giggles
And waves his little fist
Now whenever he takes a nap
He's actually missed!

Answer the questions.

How does the speaker feel about their little brother?
How do you know?
