

Challenge an Idea

1. Write down the idea that your teacher shared with you about the story you just read.

2. Think about this idea. How might you challenge it? Write your questions or comments in the left hand column. Be prepared to share your challenges in a class discussion. In the right hand column, make notes on how others respond to your challenges.

My Challenges

Comments from Discussion

--

--

--

--

3. After the discussion, review your notes. Based on the challenges and responses the group discussed, do you think that this idea is sound? Why or why not?
