

Name _____ Direct Objects

Direct Objects

DIRECTIONS: Circle the direct object in each sentence.

- Mary sang the baby a song.                      baby                      song
- John faked his signature on the paper.                      signature                      paper
- Kim left a tip for the waiter.                      tip                      waiter
- Besides the teacher, I only know Jim.                      teacher                      Jim
- You disappointed me with that decision.                      me                      decision
- You gave me an idea for a poem.                      idea                      poem
- He roasted the turkey in a large pan.                      turkey                      pan
- At lunch, I ate a sandwich.                      lunch                      sandwich
- I piled the books on my desk.                      books                      desk
- I lost my watch in the ocean.                      watch                      ocean