

Infinitive or Gerund?

DIRECTIONS: Is the underlined word an infinitive or a gerund?

- | | | | |
|-----|--|------------|--------|
| 1. | Sharing is what friends do. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 2. | I would like to show you something. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 3. | Mark was happy to get out of there. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 4. | Walking is very good for your health. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 5. | How do you plan to invest your money? | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 6. | I hope to provide for my family. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 7. | I avoid eating processed foods. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 8. | Ignoring this situation won't help. | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 9. | You really should learn to swim . | Infinitive | Gerund |
| 10. | I prefer to eat most meals at home. | Infinitive | Gerund |