

Pronouns Antecedent Agreement

Rewrite the second sentence in each pair, replacing the underlined nouns from the first sentence with a pronoun.

1. Jane is a pianist. Jane is world renowned for her playing.
2. Ken and Kim travel a lot. Ken and Kim went to Paris last year.
3. Donald doesn't eat meat. Donald eats a lot of rice.
4. These boots are very sturdy. These boots will be great for hiking.

Write the correct pronoun on the line to match the antecedent.

5. I love books, so I read a lot of _____.
6. These shoes don't fit. _____ are too tight.
7. That cord doesn't work. Throw _____ away.
8. Penny called. _____ had some important news.
9. Nancy and Jacob are here. _____ want to see you.