

Name _____ Compare and Contrast

Compare and Contrast

Comparing means to look for things that are the same. Contrasting means to look for things that are different. You can compare and contrast two things in the same piece of writing. Use transitional words to suggest whether something is being compared or contrasted.

Think about your experiences with two different subjects in school. Compare and contrast your experiences with the subjects. Use transition words to signal to the reader whether you are comparing or contrasting.
