Negative Prefixes

Some prefixes like un–, in–, ir–, a–, etc. mean "not." If you use a word with a negative prefix in a sentence that already contains a negative word, you might accidentally create a double negative.

DIRECTIONS: Use each word in a sentence to express a negative idea. Avoid the double negative.

discomfort   1.

illegal   2.

imperfect   3.

inorganic   4.

irrational   5.

nonconformist   6.

uninteresting

nonessential