

Cause and Effect

DIRECTIONS: Read the cause and then write an effect. Then combine the cause and effect into a single sentence. Follow the example.

Cause: Jim's phone rang.

Effect: Jim answered his phone.

Sentence: Jim's phone rang, and he answered it.

1. Cause: Jill likes dogs.

Effect:

Sentence:

2. Cause: Henry was hungry.

Effect:

Sentence:

3. Cause: It rained all day.

Effect:

Sentence:

4. Cause: Jeremy was cold.

Effect:

Sentence:

5. Cause: The kids were restless.

Effect:

Sentence: