

Adverbs Clauses Add Details

An adverb clause gives more information about a verb in a sentence. Like adverbs, an adverb clause answers the questions how, how much, where, or when. Read each sentence below. Then rewrite it three ways, each time adding an adverb clause that answers the question in the left column.

Joe walked his dog.

where? 2.

when? 3.

Cathy asked a question.

how? 4.

where? 5.

when? 6.
