

Concrete or Abstract?

A concrete noun is a person, place or thing that can be perceived by the senses. A noun is concrete if you can see, hear, feel, touch, smell or taste the thing it stands for. An abstract noun usually names an idea, a feeling, or a concept.

DIRECTIONS: Circle whether the bolded noun in each sentence is concrete or abstract.

1. Seeing you is pure joy.  concrete abstract
2. I put on a sweater. concrete abstract
3. Hand me that pile of books. concrete abstract
4. His bravery is admirable. concrete abstract
5. I was overcome by fear. concrete abstract
6. My office is my happy place. concrete abstract
7. The lights in the window look so pretty. concrete abstract
8. I could not find the remote. concrete abstract
9. I never listen to gossip. concrete abstract
10. Put that cloth in the laundry. concrete abstract