

Characteristics of a Chronicle

1. Put an X next to the characteristics of a chronicle.

- The narrative includes interpretation.
- The narrative is factual.
- The narrative takes an aggregate view on events.
- The narrative tells about events in the order that they happened.
- The narrative includes analysis of the events.
- The narrative is written.
- The narrative covers personal events.
- The narrative covers important historical events.
- The narrative makes predictions about the future.
- The narrative is fiction.
- The style is objective.
- The style is analytical.
- The narrative includes speculation.

2. Write the definition of a chronicle.
