

ANSWERS

Note to Teacher: Pass out worksheet on the first day of school. Ask students to write a letter to themselves that they will open on the 100th day of school. Instruct each student to fold their paper in half when they are finished writing and write their name on the outside of the folded page. Collect the letters and keep them. Return each student's letter to them on the 100th day of school.