

ANSWERS

Labor Day is celebrated on the first Monday in September.

The first Labor Day was held in New York City in the year 1882.

We celebrate Labor Day to recognize the contribution of American workers to America's freedom and prosperity.