

Name _____ Determiners

Determiners

Determiners introduce noun phrases. They are words like the, a, my, this, some, either, every, many, enough, several, etc.

Choose the correct determiner to complete each sentence.

- _____ dog is definitely man's best friend.
A. most                      B. some                      C. the
- I have seen _____ dogs running loose around here.
A. none of                      B. none                      C. no
- _____ people in this neighborhood have dogs.
A. several                      B. several of                      C. many
- I treat _____ dog I see with kindness and respect.
A. each                      B. each of                      C. both are correct
- _____ dogs are more outgoing than others.
A. some                      B. some of                      C. someone
- _____ dog that is friendly with me, will find I am their friend.
A. any                      B. anyone                      C. anything
- I have met very _____ dogs that I didn't get along with.
A. a few                      B. few                      C. the few
- I will happily spend time with _____ dog.
A. neither                      B. neither of                      C. either