

Name _____ To, Too, Two

To, Too, Two

The words to, too, and two are homophones: words that sound the same, but which have different meanings.

To is a preposition that expresses movement or direction:

We walked to the park. I will add a paragraph to my essay.

Too means also, or to a greater degree:

I want one too. It is too cold in here.

Two is a number: I have two red dresses.

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence. If the sentence is correct, circle correct. If the sentence is incorrect, circle incorrect.

- |     |  |         |           |
|-----|--|---------|-----------|
| 1.  | My sister is going two college.                        | correct | incorrect |
| 2.  | When you get to the park, text me.                     | correct | incorrect |
| 3.  | I will head too the beach this evening.                | correct | incorrect |
| 4.  | Go to the third floor and the office is on your right. | correct | incorrect |
| 5.  | I found two kittens under my porch.                    | correct | incorrect |
| 6.  | He hurried too class because he was late.              | correct | incorrect |
| 7.  | We are having cookies. We are having cake too.         | correct | incorrect |
| 8.  | I am going to the big game on Friday night.            | correct | incorrect |
| 9.  | My mother is to busy too bake cookies.                 | correct | incorrect |
| 10. | His bad mood was to much for me, so I left.            | correct | incorrect |
| 11. | I don't care for this two much.                        | correct | incorrect |
| 12. | Can you make two copies of this for me?                | correct | incorrect |