

Explicit Information

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Explicit information is information that the author specifically states. _____

2. Explicit information requires the reader to make assumptions or to use their imagination in order to get the meaning of the passage. _____

3. When an author says something explicitly, they say exactly what they mean in a straightforward way. _____

4. Fiction only contains explicit information. _____

5. Nonfiction only contains explicit information. _____

6. Explicit information is only found in fiction. _____

7. Explicit information is only found in nonfiction. _____

8. The following sentence contains explicit information: John ate twelve chocolate chip cookies for his lunch today. _____

9. The main idea of a text is always made in an explicit way in both fiction and nonfiction. _____