

Elements of Drama

DIRECTIONS: Identify each part of the script. Write the term in the box.

character/role	stage direction	dialogue
setting	scene	narration

ACT 1, Scene 1

Setting: A school classroom.

RYAN: (Looking frantically through his backpack) Oh no! I left my homework at home!

GEORGE: Sure you did.

PAUL: Maybe your dog ate it.

RYAN: Out of my backpack?

GEORGE: Of course not. Your dog isn't that smart.

(Ryan is suddenly overcome by a memory of a similar conversation that took place on a playground when he and George and Paul were about five years old. In fact, there have been many such little brutalities in their lives together.)

RYAN: (Jumping up out of his desk and turning on the other two) That's it! I've had enough of it! Enough of the both of you!