

Subordinating Conjunctions

DIRECTIONS: Use a subordinating conjunction to combine each pair of sentences with an adverb clause.

1. Yesterday Mom drove me to school. I missed the bus.
2. I lost my purse. I went to the mall.
3. I won't pass the test. I got a lot of answers wrong.
4. She works after school. She works when she feels like it and when she doesn't.
5. I will turn in my paper. I have to finish my paper first.
6. I can't have desert. I have to eat my dinner.
7. John has a cat. John really likes cats.
8. I watched a movie. I watched it after I got home from school.
9. I will draw. I will watch television at the same time.