

Demonstratives

Underline the idea that the demonstrative pronoun refers to.

1. We have refinanced the house. This will save us several hundred dollars a month.
2. I ordered six pounds of rice. That will last me for an entire year.
3. I have considered walking, cycling, or scootering to work. Any of these would be better than driving a car.
4. I spent thirty dollars at the grocery store. That is the lowest I have ever spent in one trip.
5. I spend a lot of time with my time with my family. This is because my family is very important to me.
6. I never stay up past nine. This is because I thrive on routine and a good night's sleep.
7. I own three pair of jeans. These are the main things that I wear.
8. Today I did something nice for my mother. This made me feel really good.