International Children's Book Day

Year: _____ Theme: _____

Imagine that you are the children's book author who has been asked to write a message to all the world's children about books and reading. What will you say to call attention to children's books and inspire a love of reading in children everywhere? Write your message below.

© 15Worksheets.com