

Name _____ Infinitives

Infinitive Phrases

An infinitive phrase is an infinitive with modifiers or a complement that all act together as a single part of speech.

EXAMPLES: My hope is to become a writer.

It's always helpful to have a friend.

I prefer to wait in my car.

DIRECTIONS: Underline the infinitive phrase in each sentence below.

1. Dylan agreed to bring us donuts.
2. I told her to text me right away.
3. I refuse to eat processed food.
4. He asked me to go to dinner with him.
5. I was hesitant to tell her what happened.
6. She has no choice but to work this weekend.
7. He took me to get my hair cut.