

Name _____ Your and You're

Your or You're?

Your means "belongs to you." You're is a contraction of "you are."

DIRECTIONS: Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

1. Jane, your / you're pretty amazing.
2. That dog wants a bite of your / you're dinner.
3. When your / you're sure, let me know.
4. Of course your / you're invited.
5. Eat. Your / You're spaghetti is getting cold.
6. Kim says your / you're upset with me.
7. Please get your / you're feet off the coffee table.
8. I'm jealous. Your / You're so talented.
9. You'll succeed because your / you're not a quitter.
10. My feet are bigger than your / you're feet.

