

ANSWERS

1. It marks the anniversary of the signing of the armistice, or suspension of hostilities, between the Allied nations and Germany that took effect in the 11th hour of the 11th month in 1918.
2. suspension of hostilities
3. to honor veterans of World War I
4. World War II mobilized the greatest number of servicemen in our country's history. After, the Korean war, veterans' service organizations began lobbying efforts to have the name of the holiday changed, so as to honor all of those who had served their country in the military, not just the veterans of World War I.
5. Eisenhower
6. While Memorial Day honors those who have died in service to their country, and Armed Forces Day honors those who are currently serving, Veterans Day honors those whose military service to their country has ended, but who are still living.
7. in recognition of the important historical significance of the date