

Name _____ Future Tense

Future Continuous Tense

The future continuous tense indicates that something will occur in the future and continue for an expected length of time. Form the future continuous tense using the construction will + be + the present participle (the root verb + -ing).

Present Tense	Future Continuous Tense
carries	will be carrying
drinks	will be drinking

DIRECTIONS: Change each sentence into future continuous tense.

1. I enjoy a long lunch.
2. I hang pictures.
3. I mop the floor.
4. I do the dishes.
5. I cut the grass.
6. I wait patiently.
7. I drive across country.