

Climate Change

Global warming is a term used to describe an excess of carbon in the atmosphere, which has been causing the overall temperature of the Earth to gradually increase. While a temperature increase of a few degrees may not seem like much, it is enough to cause some major environmental changes.

DIRECTIONS: Identify five major things that are expected to happen to the Earth as global temperatures continue to rise.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.