Compare and Contrast

Comparing means to look for things that are the same. Contrasting means to look for things that are different. You can compare and contrast two things in the same piece of writing. Use transitional words to suggest whether something is being compared or contrasted.

DIRECTIONS: Think about two things you enjoy doing. Using an alternating pattern, write a paragraph that both compares and contrasts them.

© 15Worksheets.com