

Adjective or Adverb?

An adverb modifies a verb. It describes how, when or where an action happens. An adjective modifies a noun. It tells more about the noun. DIRECTIONS: Read each word. Do you use an adjective or an adverb to modify it? Circle the correct answer.

- | | | | | |
|-----|----------|----------------|-----------|--------|
| 1. | studies | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 2. | returns | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 3. | bread | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 4. | pants | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 5. | works | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 6. | listens | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 7. | potatoes | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 8. | asks | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 9. | waits | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 10. | desk | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 11. | glass | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 12. | arrives | modify with an | adjective | adverb |
| 13. | screen | modify with an | adjective | adverb |