

Name _____ Adverb Clauses

Adverb Clauses

Find the adverbial clause. Write the word it modifies on the short line and the clause on the longer line.

1. I ordered two copies so I could give one to my friend.

2. You are acting as if this is not your fault.

3. I will not do that even if you beg me.

4. We can hang out as long as you don't mind being with my dog.

Use a subordinating conjunction to combine each pair of sentences with an adverb clause.

5. I am happy. I have now been accepted to college.

6. I can go out. I have to finish my homework first.

7. I will not eat meat. I won't eat meat if you tell me it's healthy.

8. I like school. Sometimes it is a challenge.
