Compound Nouns

A compound noun is a noun that is made up of two or more words. Many compound nouns are formed by combining two nouns or combining an adjective with a noun. They can also be formed by combining a verb, a verb ending in -ing, or a preposition with a noun.

DIRECTIONS: Provide an example for each form of compound word.

Compound Word Generated By:			Example:
noun	+	noun	_____
adjective	+	noun	_____
verb(-ing)	+	noun	_____
noun	+	verb(-ing)	_____
verb	+	preposition	_____
noun	+	prepositional phrase	_____
preposition	+	noun	_____
noun	+	adjective	_____