

Demonstratives

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite the second sentence of each pair to clarify the idea referred to by the demonstrative pronoun. You may use this, that, these, or those as an adjective (followed by a noun or noun phrase). Rewrite only the second sentence.

1. Allen went to the cafe and ordered a donut. This is his favorite thing.

2. Tina picked up her little dog. She put him in his crate. This is always necessary when people come over.

3. We finally had to replace our hot water heater. This has been coming for a long time.

4. There are many people at the party. This is the largest I have ever seen.
