

Shall | Should | Will | Would

shall, should Use in the second and third person to express a promise or a threat.

shall Use in the first person to express the future tense.

will Use in the second and third person to express simple future time.

would Use to make polite requests.

will Use in the first person to express willingness, determination, promise, habit, intention or threat.

Complete each sentence with shall, should, will, or would.

1. You _____ regret this decision.
2. The girls _____ be here in a few hours.
3. We _____ appreciate some napkins.
4. Cathy _____ study more or she will fail this class.
5. I _____ not take English next year.
6. John _____ gladly lend a hand.
7. I _____ forget your birthday if I don't write it down.
8. They _____ not park there. It's a handicap spot.

