

Indefinite Pronouns

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite each sentence, substituting an indefinite pronoun for the noun or pronoun.

1. Janet got lost on the hike.
2. The girls went out to look for her.
3. Mary, Joan, and Anna went into the woods.
4. I can't find anyone who has seen Janet.
5. Hannah and Rachel want to look too.
6. Every problem has happened on this trip.
7. The total number of hikers are now looking for Janet.
8. The majority of hikers are looking around the lake.
9. Carol and Kathy spotted Janet.
10. Janet and the other hikers are fine.