

Drawing Conclusions about People

DIRECTIONS: Read each passage. What conclusions can you draw about the character? Write your answer on the line. Briefly explain your answer.

1. Hank checked his phone again. There were no texts, no missed calls. He paced around his room, looked out the window, then sat on his bed.

2. There were platters of fruit, meats, cheeses, breads, and crackers, but Paul passed them all by. He scanned the table until he saw, at the end, a pile of cookies and donuts. There, he stopped, and filled his plate.

3. Shannon grabbed her rubber gloves, a sponge, a roll of paper towels, and a bottle of spray cleaner and marched into the bathroom.

4. Kenneth rehearsed his story in his head, and braced himself for a question that he couldn't answer, but none came. When his mother accepted his explanation without question, he was filled with relief.
