

Prepositions of Time

Which preposition of time do you use to talk about each instance? Write in, at, or on on the line.

_____ decades

_____ days of the week

_____ dates

_____ seasons

_____ months

_____ specific days

_____ years

_____ holidays that include "day"

_____ specific times

_____ centuries

_____ periods of time

_____ days of the month

Write three sentences. Use the specified preposition of time.

(in)

(at)

(on)