

Betsy and the Ball

DIRECTIONS: Read the story. Then put the events in order from 1 to 5.

Betsy was a very lazy cat. She was so lazy, she didn't even like to play. She was also a very curious cat. She was a little more curious than she was lazy. One day, she was dozing on the sofa when, across the room under a table, she saw something that wasn't usually there. Betsy slowly uncurled and stretched herself down onto the floor. Then she walked to the table to look at the thing. It was soft and round. She batted it with her paw, and it rolled away. She tried to pick it up with her mouth, but when she tried to bite down on it, the thing shot away from her. A challenge! Betsy had to have the thing! She darted after it. She didn't even realize she was playing!
