

Reading Nonfiction

Explicit | Implicit | Uncertain Information

Is this informational nonfiction or literary nonfiction? _____

What is the main idea (or main ideas) of the text?

What does the text say explicitly to support that this is the main idea?

What does the text imply to support that this is the main idea?

Is there any uncertainty in this text? What is it? How do you know? What is the relationship between this uncertainty (if any) and the main idea? If there is no uncertainty in this text, how does that support the main idea of the text?
