

ANSWERS

1. It means "the cause." This is what Cesar Chavez called his movement to improve the working conditions for farm workers.
2. He knew firsthand about the hardships and injustices of doing this kind of work because he worked in the fields as a migrant farm worker in California when he was an adolescent and a young man.