

International Space Station

TRUE OR FALSE

1. The ISS was built by the United States. _____

2. The ISS consists of a single piece that was launched into space already intact. _____

3. The ISS can house up to 6 astronauts at a time. _____

4. The ISS weighs almost a million pounds. _____

5. NASA uses the ISS as a science lab where they learn about living and working in space. _____

6. Astronauts have lived on the ISS since 2000. _____

7. Astronauts on the ISS are scheduled for 8 hours of sleep at the end of each work day. _____

8. Once the ISS has been assembled in space, it does not require any maintenance by the crew. _____

9. One of the drawbacks of living on the ISS is that there is no way for the astronauts to get any exercise. _____

10. Astronauts on the ISS have leisure time every day. _____

11. Astronauts on the ISS have to eat the same meal every day. _____