

Name _____ Synopsis

My Favorite Book

DIRECTIONS: Imagine you have been asked to write a synopsis of your favorite novel for a film production company. Based on your synopsis, the company will decide whether or not they will make your favorite novel into a film. There is a lot of competition for the company's resources, and they only commit to making films of stories that they think will be really compelling, so you want to make sure that your synopsis gets across all the things that you think are the best things about the book. Before you get started, think about the following:

My Favorite Book: _____

What I Like Best about this Book: _____

Main Events of the Story: _____

Most Compelling Character and Why: _____

How It Ends: _____
