

Name _____

Is It a Need or a Want?

DIRECTIONS: Write the name of the person in each pair of sentences who is thinking about something they need.

1. Neither Joe nor Pete has had lunch yet. Joe is thinking about a sandwich. Pete is thinking about a donut.

Who is thinking about something they need? _____

2. Kim and Allison are at the mall. Kim is thinking about a video game. Allison is thinking about new jeans for school.

Who is thinking about something they need? _____

3. Hank and Ryan are thinking about their futures. Hank is thinking about a jet ski. Ryan is thinking about a career.

Who is thinking about something they need? _____

4. It's summer. Mr. Miller is thinking about putting in a pool. Mr. Johnson is thinking about getting his air conditioner repaired.

Who is thinking about something they need? _____

5. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are shopping for household goods. Mr. Walker is thinking about lightbulbs. Mrs. Walker is thinking about scented candles.

Who is thinking about something they need? _____