

Battle of Little Big Horn

TRUE OR FALSE

1. The Battle of Little Big Horn took place during the U.S. Civil War.

2. The Battle of Little Big Horn was fought between the U.S. Army and the Lakota, Dakota, Cheyenne, and Arapaho tribes.

3. The Battle of Little Big Horn is also known as Custer's Last Stand.

4. The U.S. Army soldiers, including Custer, were led by Major Marcus Reno.

5. The Battle of Little Big Horn was named after the mountain near where the battle took place.

6. The U.S. Army soldiers outnumbered the Native American warriors nearly two to one.

7. The Battle of Little Big Horn was won by the Native American tribes.

8. Ultimately, the outcome of this battle sped up the rate at which the U.S. Army was sent to subdue the Native American tribes.
