

Republicanism

A principle is a value that guides behavior or serves as the foundation for a belief system or line of reasoning. The United States Constitution rests on seven principles. One of these principles is called Republicanism.

What does Republicanism mean?

Why did the framers
want a Republican
form of government?

What is one danger of a democracy that the framers wanted to avoid?