

ANSWERS

To remember the period in 1692 and 1693 when people were persecuted for being suspected or practicing witchcraft

It is composed of granite benches, each representing a victim with their last words carved into their bench, taken from the trial transcripts. Also carved into each bench was the date they died and how they died. The area is surrounded on three sides by four-foot-high granite walls

Nobel Laureate, Holocaust survivor, and author Elie Wiesel

Opinions will vary.