

ANSWERS

1. the process of learning something new through trial and error
2. to give someone all the information they need to complete a task
3. to have a product or service that dominates the marketplace
4. when you are unable to take action due to some reason external to yourself
5. very uncertain (of an outcome or decision)
6. to learn the basics of something, get acclimated
7. something very unlikely
8. it's not very complicated
9. according to the rules
10. to provide benefit or negotiation in some way
11. to contact someone.
12. from the very beginning
13. starting all over again from the beginning