

ANSWERS

	Communism	Capitalism
Government	High government control and interference	Little and sometimes no government interference
Ideology	far-left ideology and movement with the goal of socioeconomic order based on common ownership of the production, distribution, and exchange of goods.	individuals are free to own property and make money
Economy	Businesses are controlled by the community and the share of each individual depends on their abilities and needs.	Businesses are owned and controlled by private individuals with profit as the goal.